Contractor Child Gets the Six Hundred Dollars That He Asked For

TO SEE PREMIER LAURIER
Interview Sir Wilfrid Re. Penitentiary Site—Grant Loan to Presbyterians

Contractor S. Child was virtually allowed $600 on his contract for the construction of the power house at a special meeting of the city council this morning, the matter being left in the hands of the commissioners with power to act. Commissioner Bonillon reviewed the history of the trouble over the Child contract and showed by figures that after the completion of the work there would be approximately $1,000 left of Mr. Child's Better Late Than Never.

In the way of a voluntary subscription to the sufferers in the recent flood at Campbellton, New Brunswick, the council made a donation of $500, which will be forwarded to the relief committee.

The application of the board of management of the First Presbyterian Church for a loan of $500, church property was granted.

loan was made for two years per cent.

To See Laurier
A committee, composed of Messrs. Gariepy, Lundy, Armstrong, Mond, with the Mayor, with a view to their number, was appointed to lay before Sir Wilfrid Laurier, minister relative to the desired relief of the penitentiary and also the transfer of the broken bank along banks of the Saskatchewan river, Grierson street.

The proposal to change the name of the Old House property to Laurier met with the unanimous approval of the council. The motion was by Ald. Gariepy, a staunch Liberal, and seconded by Ald. Armstrong, an equally enthusiastic follower of the fortunes of the Conservative party. It was thought a very opportune time to make the change.

New York, Aug. 1.—Officer Seider of the Williamsburg Bridge brought Sim Unger, a driver, East 10th street into Essex court yesterday.

"What did he do?" asked Magistrate Steiner.

"He snored me," said the policeman. "He snored too loud."

"Where did this happen?" asked the magistrate.

"While he was all alone in his truck, driving across the bridge. He was asleep," said Schneider.

"Two dollars fine, Unger," said Magistrate Steiner. "You should sleep on your side."

Small Boy Playing on Namayo Ave. Struck by Car.

Two accidents of a minor nature occurred yesterday. In the afternoon about 2.30 a small boy, aged about six years was struck by a street car on Namayo Avenue. But for the fact that the car had almost come to a stop in order to let a passenger off, the youngster would have been very seriously injured. He was taken to his home and the slight wounds he suffered were dressed. In the morning a young man while trying to board a moving car on Jasper Avenue west slipped and fell to the pavement sustaining minor bruises.

HYMN BRINGS TEARS TO EYES OF MURDERER

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

Fort Saskatchewan, Aug. 1.—With only a few more hours of life on God's green earth, William Oscar King, who will be hanged tomorrow for murdering a comrade on the trail on a winter's night, has at last realized that there is no hope for him in this world and is now turning his thoughts to the eternally before him. At first when he was taken to the Fort he made a jest of his captivity hoping against hope for the reprieve which he was certain would come from Ottawa, but last week all his hopes were dashed to the ground—the powers that rule the empire have decreed that no mercy shall be shown him, but that he shall pay the price in full, an example to all who may try to evade the long arm of British justice.

Since this information was conveyed to him he has turned his thoughts to the future and spends most of his remaining hours studying the prayer book of the Lutheran Church which he asked for as soon as he heard the news.

Over him the Death Watch has been set: every second of his remaining hours of life the eyes of the watchmen on guard are on him, watching his every movement sleeping or waking. The condemned cell has a door made of thick iron bars covered with wire netting, and the door is kept locked.

On Sunday an impressive scene was witnessed in the prison yard, when the Salvation Army of Edmonton held a special meeting for the inmates of the prison. At two o'clock the prisoners were lined up on benches along two sides of the yard, the twenty-foot walls towering above them, the clear blue sky marked by the barbed wire overhead which covered in the whole.

In the centre of the band of the Salvation Army formed a circle and a short, simple service was conducted. Such an array of strong doors as there were, from the aged hardened criminal to the careless boy hardly old enough to know the enormity of his crime. Faces of every type, some eager and interested, some listless and inattentive, but all brightening up whenever the hymns were sung.

SCHOOL B'D REPORT OUT

Need a New Central Administrative Building, Says the Ex-Chairman

ALSO COMPLETE LIBRARY

Past Year Has Been One of Characteristic Advance, Due to Two Causes

FORECAST THE FUTURE

Emphasis to Be Laid on the Special Courses—Need More Domestic Science

"The year just closed has been one of characteristic expansion due on one hand to the steady growth of school population requiring immediate care and on the other to the need of further organizing the administrative work of the board to meet the requirements of our rapidly growing school interests."

The above statement is contained in the sub-report of the chairman of the public school board included in the general report of the board for the year ending December 31, 1909, which has just been issued. The report in all particulars shows that the past year has been one of progress in all the departments of the city schools.

The report of the secretary-treasurer, W. D. Bradey, shows that there was a surplus of $23,430.95 at the end of the year. The assets were $569,346.28, against liabilities amounting to $476,300.30.

Need New Central Building
According to the sub-report of the chairman of the board, it will shortly be necessary to consider the question of acquiring a central or at least convenient business site on which to erect an administrative building for the board. The building should provide accommodation for the present officials of the board as well as for the board itself. It should contain rooms for supervisors, a library and reading room for teachers, besides ample store rooms for the care of school supplies which may in the future be distributed free to pupils from the central office.

"The building itself should be a worthy expression of the active and wholesome educational sentiment that inspires the citizens of Edmonton."

Educational Work

In connection with educational work the report goes on to say: "On the educational side considerable progress has been made. The manual side has been given better status by the establishment of bench work equipment in all the permanent public school buildings and by the improvement of the handwork in all the standards below standard IV. It will be necessary to ensure suitable efficiency in this work by an adequate expenditure for materials. It is not the aim of the board to carry this too far, but its lead in initiating and fostering a natural taste for mechanical and handwork as well as its value in developing accuracy and resource should be recognized. The departments in charge of supervisors now number five, hand and bench work, household science, physical culture, music and art. Supervisor C. K. Flint has shown proficiency in his physical culture work by taking creditable rank among the candidates entering the Strathcona competition for the position of supervisor of physical culture and military training for schools. It is largely due to his energy that the school sports are serving such a useful purpose in the social and physical betterment of both boys and girls. His department deserves the continued support of the board."

"It is a credit to the staff of teachers and the superintendent that the Teachers' Club, organized last year, is proving a success. Much good on both the improving and social side has already resulted to teachers and their friends from their meetings."

This section of the report also makes reference to the new high school and the Seventeenth street school, both of which are now in course of construction. Each of these buildings, the report says, is intended to be an advance in size, accommodation, and quality, on those accounts.

Convinces Calgary People That He Does Not Wish to Knock the South

Calgary, August 1.—Mr. S. W. Candy, of Edmonton, arrived in the city on Saturday and rented an office at 114 Ninth avenue west. This personal remark causes no great amount of interest until it is explained that Mr. Candy is the representative of the Edmonton Board of Trade, who has come to Calgary to give information to new-comers about the wisdom of going north. There was some misunderstanding about the mission of Mr. Candy. However, he will be welcomed in Calgary and everything done to make his path smooth.

It was surmised that the idea of the campaign of the Edmonton Board of Trade was to profit by the rather short crop in the southern part of the country. This idea arose from a report in the Edmonton papers. Mr. Candy states that there was no such idea, and there is no such idea. He is no knocker and never will be, and his appearance bears him out, for a more mild mannered and generally peaceful man never stepped inside our city.

"I want you to understand my mission here," said Mr. Candy. "I am not here to knock. I hear that the crops are not so very good down here. I am not saying it. When I meet people who are disappointed with crop prospects in the southern part of Alberta or in other parts of the west, I direct them to the north country and inform them that they want to see crops, just go north. I think that is better for Calgary than a man should go north and settle any place between here and Red Deer or Wetaskiwin than not settle in Alberta at all."

REPORTS EXAGGERATED RE GOOSE ISLAND DAM

Mr. T. Malhot, resident engineer of the Dominion Department of Public Works, arrived in the city on Saturday and is a guest at the King Edward Hotel.

To a representative of The Capital Mr. Malhot, who is in charge of the boom which is being built at Goose Island, said that some malicious and altogether false representations had been made in the press regarding the condition of the work at the island.

The statement that the greater part of the work had been destroyed was quite untrue, he said; all the damage that was done was the carrying away of two tents by the spring floods. These tents were under construction, and were simply piles driven in with out any supports or struts or ballast, and it was pure misfortune that the floods came before they were reinforced and the ballast put in. It kept the work back, of course, said Mr. Malhot, but very little money was lost.

Speaking of the financial side of the undertaking, he said that the appropriation which they had been granted was finished, and it was simply a matter of waiting now until it could be readjusted.

Mr. Malhot does not think there is any real dissatisfaction amongst the lumbermen, they quite understand that if the two tents had not been destroyed the boom would have been in a position to handle the log drives this year.

Today Mr. Malhot will meet some of the local lumbermen to discuss the present position of affairs. Everything is going well, and the necessary funds being obtainable, the boom will be finished in a couple of months.

CROP GENERALLY GOOD

Summary Is: Manitoba, Fair; Alberta and Saskatchewan, Good

Winnipeg, August 1.—"Western Canada this year will harvest a good all-round crop."

So says the Winnipeg Telegram, as the result of reports received from its correspondents all over the three prairie provinces.

The Telegram continues: "It is true that the crop will not be as good as perhaps it might have been had the weather been good for grain growing. The crop, however, will by no means be a failure. On the contrary, the harvest this year will yield handsome returns, and it will pay all expenses with plenty over and to spare. The continued hot weather in many districts has considerably affected the growth of the grain and consequently small yields will be the result as far as wheat is concerned, but a good average to strike is about twelve bushels to the acre. In many districts the yield will be much better, especially harvesting as much as thirty bushels an acre."

Summary of Reports
Summarizing the reports the conditions might be reported thus:

Manitoba—Good.
Saskatchewan—Good.
Alberta—Good.

The crop in Manitoba, while it will probably average about fifteen bushels to the acre, has suffered to some extent in the long dry spell.

"Most of the damage by the terrific heat and the lack of moisture was done in the southern districts of the province, and the northern portion fared much better. The rains came just a little late to set the wheat right, but were in good time to guarantee a good crop of coarse grains and feed. Harvest in Manitoba has already started and the majority of correspondents report that harvest will be generally by next week."

Crops in Saskatchewan
In Saskatchewan many districts report that summer wheat will go thirty bushels to the acre. These good yields, however, are somewhat offset by the fact that a number of districts have suffered badly from hot weather and no rain and will only yield about eight bushels to the acre. As a general thing the crops in Saskatchewan will be very near the usual average. Wheat will easily average eighteen bushels, and in many places the average will be fifteen bushels. Numerous districts in Saskatchewan report that the yields will be much better than in former years a statement that is most reassuring.

Reports from Alberta

Apparently No Cause for the Sudden Outburst of a Mob of Several Hundred

Palestine, Texas, Aug. 1.—At least fifteen, perhaps twenty negroes, all probably unarmed, were hunted down and killed by a mob of from 200 to 300 men in the Slocum and Denison Springs neighborhood and Palestine Saturday night and Sunday, according to Sheriff Black, who returned early this morning after 24 hours in this district.

He told of a fierce man hunt in the woods, of riddled bodies found on lonely roads and of terror among the inhabitants in the south eastern part of Anderson county.

Sheriff Black said his estimate of the dead is conservative. He made careful investigation and after telling of his result, added:

"We won't find some of the bodies until their location is revealed to us by buzzards. I found the greatest excitement prevailing throughout the section of the county," continued the sheriff. "men were going about and killing negroes as fast as they could find them and as far as I was able to ascertain without any real cause. The negroes have done no wrong that I could discover."

"There was just a hot-headed gang hunting them down and killing them. We found eleven bodies, but from what I have heard the dead must number fifteen or twenty. We came across four bodies in one house on a marsh between Denison Springs and Slocum."

"State troops from Austin and Houston have been concentrated on the spot and have concentrated the army to protect them, a security for the unfortunate are only too grateful. Meantime, strong detachments are patrolling the country and confiscating all the weapons they can find."

Dramatic Arrest of Dr. Hawley Crippen and Ethel Leneve on Ocean Liner

POISON FOUND ON MAN

APPEAR IN POLICE COURT

Try to Get Girl to Turn King's Evidence—Relatives Stand By Her

Quebec, Que., August 1.—Not in the ordinary police cells but in the underground rooms at the parliament buildings which usually give shelter to political prisoners alone, Dr. Hawley Crippen and Ethel Leneve are awaiting their summons before the Magistrate today.

After the first shock of the arrest Crippen has shown little emotion but the girl is broken and moans almost constantly, wringing her hands and pressing them to her head.

Prepared to Suicide

There was no struggle at the arrest. Every precaution had been taken against suicide and it was well known that in Crippen's pocket there was a white powder, thought to be poison, and a small vial of dark colored liquid. Ethel Leneve threw something from the port hole as she was being arrested but what it was the police do not know.

The most dramatic moment of the event was when the police arrived on the Montrose. It opened with comedy as officer Sergeant Dow's head appeared over the side.

"I'm afraid you have not climbed a ladder for a long time, pilot," called the captain. Dow laughed nervously in answer and stepped on deck.

"That is my job. Is it yours?" was the greeting of Capt. Kendall.

There was silence as Dow looked at Crippen pacing the deck ten yards away. One minute passed and then another. Kendall's face began to get pale. "Was he mistaken after all?"

Five minutes passed and then Dow turned slowly to Kendall:

"I am not sure till I get a closer look at his face. Bring him to a cabin," he said to McCarthy.

McCarthy tapped Crippen on the shoulder, "I want to see you," said he.

"What for?"

"Oh, just for a few minutes," was the answer.

Crippen followed to the cabin of the captain. He had still no suspicions, as he thought that he was talking to a pilot. Crippen was now face to face with Dow, who stood peering at him with his steel grey cold eyes.

"That's him," said in low words, and McCarthy stepped forward.

"I arrest you for the murder of Belle Elmore. Take notice that anything you may say may be used against you in evidence," said McCarthy.

Crippen curled his face to a half sneer, but said nothing. The search for "your hands," said Constable Dennis, and snap went the handcuffs.

"I am Crippen."

"Are you Crippen?"

"I am Crippen," was the response. "I am he."

Then came the search. Only ten dollars, the powder and the vial which is being examined today and which the police believe was the means Crippen had arranged to give the police the slip had he got the chance, was found.

No revelation was discovered, as it was supposed that the means Crippen threw himself on the mercy of the Bank suddenly refused to talk.

The girl's arrest
Down below sat Ethel Leneve reading George Sheldon's "Audrey's Recompense" in blissful ignorance of the rapidly closing net. A rap at the door, which opened without her consent, and the officer stepped in.

Dow said: "Ethel Leneve; we want you."

The girl's face blanched.

Then McCarthy said: "I arrest you for the murder of Belle Elmore," and gave the customary warning.

Need New Central Building

According to the sub-report of the chairman of the board, it will shortly be necessary to consider the question of acquiring a central or at least convenient building, in which to erect an administrative building for the board. The building should provide accommodation for the present officials of the board as well as for the board itself. It should contain rooms for the board, a library and reading room for teachers, besides single study rooms for the care of school supplies which may in the future be distributed free to pupils from the central office. "The building itself should be a worthy expression of the active and wholesome educational sentiment that inspires the citizens of Edmonton."

Educational Work

In connection with educational work the report goes on to say: "On the educational side considerable progress has been made. The manual side has given better status by the establishment of bench work equipment in all the permanent public school buildings and by the improvement of the handwork in all the standards below standard IV. It will be necessary to ensure suitable efficiency in this work by an adequate expenditure for materials. It is not the aim of the board to carry this too far, but its value in initiating and fostering a national taste for mechanical and handwork as well as its value in developing accuracy and resource should be recognized. The departments in charge of supervisors now number five, hand and bench work, household science, physical culture, music and art. Supervisor C. K. Flint has shown proficiency in his physical culture work by taking creditable rank among the candidates entering the Strathcona competition for the elaboration of a system of physical culture and military training for schools. It is largely due to his energy that the school sports are serving such a useful purpose in the social and physical betterment of both boys and girls. His department deserves the continued support of the board."

"It is a credit to the staff of teachers and the superintendent that the Teachers' Club, organized last year, is proving a success. Much good on such the intellectual and social side has already resulted to teachers and their friends from their meetings."

This section of the report also makes reference to the new high school and the Seventeenth street school, which are now in the course of construction. Each of these buildings, the report says, is intended to be an advance in size, accommodation, and quality, on those that

ANOTHER ALL-STAR TEAM

The Calgary fans have gone right to the task of picking All-Star W. C. L. teams. The Capital would like to hear from some of the Edmonton fans on the subject.

This is the latest Calgary selection. Catchers, Cooper, of Brandon, Anderson, of Winnipeg; infield, Baxter, of Edmonton; Connors, of Calgary; Paddock, of Calgary; Head, of Lethbridge; outfield, Ishell, of Winnipeg; Wilson, of Saskatoon; Cox, of Edmonton; Hurley, of Moose Jaw; pitchers, Skeels, of Regina, Manning, of Calgary, Nelson, of Saskatoon, Lezie, of Lethbridge.

NASH WON FINAL

At the Edmonton Tennis Club courts, on Saturday afternoon a large gallery witnessed the final in the men's open singles, between S. E. Bolton and A. E. Nash. Mr. Nash won in straight sets, 6-4, 6-3 and 6-1.

LAST YEAR FOR WEST. C. LEAGUE?

Persistent Rumors From East State That Manitoba and Sask. Teams Will Out Adrift Next Season

The Calgary Albertan deposes says:

A baseball league of cities in Saskatchewan and Manitoba seems to be probable next season, and a general Western Canada baseball league seems very much out of the question. This is the hope that I got handed me by baseball men in Regina and Winnipeg a few days ago. They figure out that now Saskatoon is in the league it will be useless to come so far west for three cities. They hope it out that they can get six cities or more who would do well in baseball. There are five teams in the league now, and the general opinion is that Weyburn is just as good as Saskatoon. If they wanted an eight-club league they might get Portage and another city, but there is no particular need of an eight-club league.

In addition to the question of distances the baseball men are not very well pleased with the fact that the western clubs have always been strong and the eastern clubs weak. They deprecate the intense rivalry which they say exists among the Alberta teams. They say that no league could be organized with Edmonton and Calgary in it, as they would not live up to the salary limit. There would always be rivalry between Calgary and Edmonton, as to which could break the limit the most.

DIAMOND FOR JACK

New York, Aug. 1.—Jack Johnson, negro heavyweight champion of the world, is going to have a $25,000 diamond belt, paid for by the black citizens of the country, if his friends here have their way. Baron Wilkins, resort owner, friend and host of Jeffries' conqueror, is today collecting contributions of all sizes, and $25,000 has been pledged and partly paid by the negroes of New York. A national campaign for coin collecting is to be started as part of the scheme. Two hundred diamonds, centering about a stone of four carats, is the tentative plan for the belt. If more than is needed is collected, a $10 a plate banquet will be given to the fighter.

Johnson is at smiles over the project. There are now 1,500 societies and groups for the propagation of Esperanto situated in all parts of the world. For every birth occurring at sea there are about 16 deaths.

THE BANKERS WON THE GAME

Defeated the Printers by the Extremely Close Score of 20 to 19, Home Run did the Trick

The baseball game on Saturday afternoon between the Printers and the Bankers was a real endurance contest which had Gridden tours and Marathons over the mountains of Greece backed into oblivion. From 3:45 to 6:40 the 18 dough athletes battled and the Bankers finally came out victorious by the close score of 20 to 19. It was a game filled with delightful uncertainty, and in which a five run lead was as nothing.

The Printers were by far the better team, but were beaten by the superior ring-craft of Captain Grant. Grant knew the game was to start about three o'clock, he carefully instructed his minions to take their balls time after appearing at the grounds. The Printers, unlearned in the science of winning games by subterfuge, arrived at the diamond about 2 o'clock, and the coasting down their "sneakers" and madly started practice. After chasing around in the hot sun for almost two hours, they were very exhausted by the time the game proper commenced.

As stated in the preface, the battle royal started at 3:45 with Waugh and Burns performing the parts of Matthews and Three Finger Brown, while Billy Yule, the Shakespearian, took the part of Hank O'Day.

The less said about the minor details of the play, the better for everyone concerned. These big league scouts are observant chaps and our local banks and agencies can ill afford to lose any of their hired help by the draft route. The Printers fooled around for the first five innings and allowed the Bankers to compile ten juicy corners while they modestly contented themselves with 2. Captain Pallister then called a solemn council of war and told his would-be players that if they didn't rapidly show some signs of life he would have them blacklisted in the union. Goaded on by the awful threat, the Printers got right after the enemy and in the sixth inning every member of the team batted and seven runs were chalked up. The ink-shed retaliated with three and in the seventh, the Printers sent five more over the plate, while the Bankers, not to be denied, made 2. Pitcher Waugh was then yanked from the box by Gen. U. S. Grant and Kendrick took up the pitching job with great success, retiring the Printers in the eighth for a goose-egg. The Bankers made three and the Printers started the ninth with a handicap of four runs starting them in the bag. By skillful playing, demon hitting, and daring base running they collected 5 and the score then stood up to 18. Unfortunately Bankers had another chance to bat, and after Wilson had hit safely, Grant came through with a home run and won the laurel wreath for the hour 19 to 20.

The umpire was very much to the frontage at the start of the game, but improved appreciably as the battle progressed. The score by innings: Printers: 100 017 505-19 Bankers: 000 303 223-20. The teams were: Printers (19)—Scott, 1b; Moss, 2b; Paradis, ss; Bill, c; McPherson, 3b; White, p; Hickey, 1b; Burns, p. Palmar, 1b. Bankers (20)—Kendrick, c.f.; Murphy, 2b; Wilson, 3b; Grant, s; Waugh, p; Richards, c; Dolson, 1b; Taylor, 1b; Mann, r.f. Umpire: "Billy" Yule.

A CALGARY "JOKE"

Say, where will Bill Donovan be next? He has been let out by Regina, and is now with Winnipeg. Bill has a strenuous time finding a home in this twilight circuit. We will hear of him playing with Edmonton next, for most of the old "has-beens" go to the old man's home in that burg and exercise a go out with Deacon, after family blessing, for a little exercise—Calgary Herald.

Those four defects in six still smart, Eh?

Afternoon Game Was a Poor Exhibition—Dell "Came Back" in Eve and Was Unhittable

Moose Jaw, Aug. 1.—An even break resulted from Saturday's double-header. The afternoon game was a farce, five pitchers taking part. Brown was taken out, but he pitched five balls. The Edmonton pitchers were erratic. The evening game was a good one. The locals could not hit Dell, who was easy in the afternoon. While Smithson allowed a number of hits, only one was timely.

 INTELLIGENT ECKSTROM *****

President Eckstrom has returned from the flat after investigating the Zimmerman case, and states that he could find nothing to support the claim of Saskatoon to the peerless fielder.

This is a case where possession is nine points, and it would appear that Zimmerman will be retained by Lethbridge—Lethbridge Herald.

 HIBS ANSWER CHARGES *****

To the Sporting Editor of the Daily Capital—Sir: In the evening edition of the Bulletin Saturday, July 30th I noticed some football comments entitled "a look over the field," in which the writer charges some clubs (nabbed by the Liberator), with a breach of the league laws. Why these charges were made without evident investigation is very hard to see. I can only assume that they originated from a St. George's source, for the benefit of other clubs and our supporters in general. I should like to correct the Bulletin's statement: (from which very erroneous impression may be formed) the facts are as follows: In the league match with the Callies, the article in the Bulletin charges us with setting the league laws in defiance by playing ineligible men, thereby spoiling the Callies' chances of the championship, it might interest the Bulletin writer to know that our men were all eligible, and our men who left the field did so for the purpose of allowing a new man whom we propose playing in the coming shield competition the practice of the match also the Callies ran no risks so far as points were concerned, seeing we formally conceded the points before the game and played a friendly. I rather fancy had we played the Callies a league match and beaten them we would have had a very different write-up in the Bulletin.

I should like to say in conclusion that the Liberator do not propose to lose their reputation as good sports by any action that would entitle them to a censure from the league. For the representative of any club to charge another club with wilfully trying to "harm sport" to my mind is a serious mistake to city leagues. As regards our match with Saskatchewan if we play a league match for points I do not think we will require any advice on the matter of playing "duly eligible men."

 BERGER TRIED FOR FRAME-UP *****

Marty Cutler Says Sam and Little Wanted Fight Fixed, Armstrong Knocked Joff Out

Chicago, Aug. 1.—Marty Cutler, sparring partner of Jack Johnson, is back in Chicago with stories supporting the charges that efforts were made to get Johnson to "fly down" to Jeffries.

 BERGER TRIED FOR FRAME-UP *****

Marty Cutler Says Sam and Little Wanted Fight Fixed, Armstrong Knocked Joff Out

"I heard Johnson say to Little in a heated conversation, 'You'll not fight. I can make more money by winning this fight than by hippodroming' and I am going to fight on the square," said Cutler. "I did not hear Little make any proposition to Johnson, but surely some efforts to get him to 'fly down' must have been made or he would not have answered Little as he did."

Cutler who quit Johnson at the same time Little broke with the champion, told of mysterious midnight conferences between Berger and Little. "While we were training at the Seal Rock Hotel, San Francisco, Berger came to see Little three times and every time late at night. He came at 10 o'clock one and twice at midnight. They were closeted together for a long time on each occasion. Just what was going on behind the closed doors I do not know, but it is funny that Berger should choose such hours to visit Johnson's quarters."

"That Jeffries was knocked out by Bob Armstrong while at Woodward's was another report brought back by Cutler. According to the champion's sparring partner, Jeffries was laid out cold by one of Bob's punches and forced to quit for several days as a result."

 CLOSE GAME AT COAST *****

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 1.—New Westminster defeated Vancouver in the most closely contested game of the Coast League in the year, 3 to 2. The Royals, who were without Len Turnbull and two other Minto cup stars scored one in the first, but there were no further scores until the third quarter. In the last quarter Vancouver made a late run when the Royals made two more, the two tallies toward the end. Hogan made his first appearance in a Vancouver uniform and played sterling throughout.

 JOHNSON THE SWEDS *****

Will Walter Johnson, the big Swede whom Hughie Jennings considers the coming greatest pitcher in the "national game, put Charlie Street, whom many regard as the best catcher in the league, out of business? Washington recently got Beckendorf from Detroit. The Nationals also have another catcher named Henry. Both are working to relieve Street. The reason Street is not catching every game is that he has badly ripped fingers. They are bruised and swollen as a result of stopping the pitched balls of the marvelous speed merchant, Johnson. Street is game and has been doing the backstop work for Johnson in nearly all of his games, but he has been forced to take things easy because of his injured "digits." If Street continues catching Johnson, it is hinted that his catching career will be curtailed.

THE BANKERS WON THE GAME

Defeated the Printers by the Extremely Close Score of 20 to 19, Home Run did the Trick

The baseball game on Saturday afternoon between the Printers and the Bankers was a real endurance contest which had Gridden tours and Marathons over the mountains of Greece backed into oblivion. From 3.45 to 6.40 the 18 doughty athletes battled and the Bankers finally came out victorious by the close score of 20 to 19. It was a game filled with delightful uncertainty, and in which a five run lead was as nothing.

The Printers were by far the better team, but were beaten by the superior ring-craft of Captain Grant. Grant knew the game was to start about three o'clock, so he carefully instructed his minions to take their bally time about appearing at the grounds. The Printers, unlearned in the science of winning games by subterfuge, arrived at the diamond about 2 o'clock, doffed their coats, donned their "sneakers" and madly started practice. After chasing around in the sun and the other players, they were very exhausted by the time the game proper was started.

As stated in the preface, the battle royal commenced at 3.45 with Waugh and Burns performing the part of everythorow. The "Three Finger Brown" and Billy Yule, the Shakespearean comedian, took the part of Hank O'Day.

The less said about the minor details of the play, the better for everybody concerned. These big league scouts are observant chaps and our local banks and newspapers can ill afford to lose any of their hired help by the draft route.

The Printers folded around for the first five innings and allowed the Bankers to compile ten juicy counters while they modestly contented themselves with 2. Captain Pallister then called a solemn council of war and tott his wretched players that if they didn't rapidly show some signs of life he would have them blacklisted in the union. Goaded on by the awful threat, the Printers got right after the Bankers and the Printers started the ninth with a handicap of four runs staring them in the face. By skillful playing, demon batting, and daring base running they collected 5 and the score then stood 19 to 18. Unfortunately the Bankers had the chance to bat, and after Wilson had hit safely, Grant came through with a home run and won the laurel wreath for the hour's magrante.

The umpire was very much to the fore at the start of the game, but improved appreciably as the battle progressed. Joseph Blair was the official scorer and performed his arduous task with the speed, accuracy and ease of an adding machine. But when the whistle blew for dinner he began to cast furtive glances upwards, and at 6.15 he was detected stealing from the grounds.

The score by innings:
Printers: 100 001 505-19
Bankers: 092 223 225-20

The teams were:
Printers (10)—Scott, 1b; Moss, 2b; Paradis, ss; Bill, c; McPherson, 3b; White, cf; Hickey, lf; Burns, p. Palister, m.
Bankers (20)—Kendrick, c.f.; Murphy, 2b; Wilson, 3b; Grant, s.; Waugh, p; Richards, c.; Dobson, lf; Taylor, lf; Mann, r.f.
Umpire: "Dilly" Yule.

A CALGARY "JOKE"

Say, where will Bill Donovan be next? He has been let out by Regina, and is now with Winnipeg. Bill Bill is a strenuous time finding a home in this twilight circuit. We will hear of him playing with Edmonton next, for most of the old "has been" go to the old man's home in that burg and exercise a go out with Deaton after family blessing, for a little exercise—Calgary Herald.

Those four defeats in six still smart, Eh?

Afternoon Game Was a Poor Exhibition—Dell "Came Back" in Eve and Was Unhittable

Moose Jaw, Aug. 1.—An even break resulted from Saturday's double-header. The afternoon game was rather a farce, five pitchers taking part. Brown was taken out, but he pitched fine ball. The Edmonton pitchers were erratic. The evening game was a good one. The locals could not hit Dell, who was easy in the afternoon. While Smithson allowed a number of hits, only one was timely.

President Eckstrom is still "investigating" the Zimmerman place, and meanwhile keeps the player on the Lethbridge roster. Zip, is pitching, outfielding and doing everything to make himself useful to the kidnapers. Come on, Lethbridge, you have no right to this player. Give him up.

The Maroons have taken a new lease of life and won a double-header on Saturday. The axe has fallen among the old players. Spencer, Moore, have already received blue tickets, while Anderson, Edmonds, McCarter and Vanzand are slated for release. Larry Piper has rejoined the team.

There is no excuse for the Edmonton team getting beaten by 14 to 11. If the Eskimos are weakening, why not infuse a little new talent.

It is said now to be possible for the fastest immigrant to buy naturalization papers in New York.

 INTELLIGENT ECKSTROM *****

President Eckstrom has returned from the Hat after investigating the Zimmerman case, and states that he could find nothing to support the claim of Saskatoon to the peerless fielder.
This is a case where possession is nine points, and it would appear that Zimmerman was retained by Lethbridge—Lethbridge Herald.

 HIBS ANSWER CHARGES *****

To the Sporting Editor of the Daily Capital—Sir: In the evening edition of the Bulletin Saturday, July 30th I noticed some football comments entitled "a look over the field," in which the writer charges some clubs (notably the Libernians), with a breach of the league laws. Why these charges were made without evident investigation is very hard to see. I can only assume that they originated from a St. George's source, for the benefit of other clubs and our supporters in general. I should like to correct the Bulletin's statement; (from which very erroneous impression may be formed) the facts are as follows: In the league match with the Calties, the article in the Bulletin charges us with setting the league laws in defiance by playing ineligible men, thereby perhaps spelling the Calties' chances of the championship, it might interest the Bulletin writer to know that our men were all eligible, and our man who left the field did so for the purpose of allowing a new man whom we propose playing in the coming shield competition the practice of the match also the Calties ran no risks so far as points were concerned, seeing we formally conceded the points before the game and played a friendly. I rather fancy had we played the Calties a league match and beaten them we would have had a very different write-up in the Bulletin.

I should like to say in conclusion that the Libernians do not propose to lose their reputation as good sports by any action that would entitle them to a censure from the league. For the representative of any club to charge another club with willfully trying to "harm sport" to my mind is a serious mistake to city leagues. As regards our match with Scratchforn if we play a league match for points I do not think we will require any advice on the matter of playing "duly eligible men."

J. E. LOWRY,
Secretary Hibernian Football Club.

Johnson the Swede
With Walter Johnson, the big Swede whom Hugh Jennings considers the coming greatest pitcher in the national game, put Charlie Street, whom many regard as the best catcher in the league, out of business? Washington recently got Beckendorf from Detroit. The Nationals also have another catcher named Henry. Both are working to relieve Street. The reason Street is not catching every game is that he has badly ripped fingers. They are bruised and swollen as a result of stopping the pitched balls of the marvelous speed merchant, Johnson. Street is game and has been doing the backstop work for Johnson in nearly all of his games, but he has been forced to take things easy because of his injured "digits." If Street continues catching Johnson, it is hinted that his entering career will be curtailed.

MANY PAY VISIT TO MODEL FARM

Domination Experimental Farm at Lacombe Holds Demonstration Day

A special train left Strathcona Saturday morning, at 8:45 carrying a large number of farmers from the Edmonton and Strathcona district to Lacombe to inspect the work being done on the Domination Experimental farm. Nearly a thousand Alberta farmers with their wives and children were present, amongst them being Hon. Duncan Marshall, H. A. Craig, superintendent of fairs; A. B. Campbell and W. P. Stevens, live stock commissioner.

Trains from all directions arrived at Lacombe between 12 and 1 o'clock and after lunch had been eaten, a brief address was made by Superintendent Hutton, welcoming the visitors, before they divided into groups to be shown over the quarter section of experimental plots by Mr. Hutton and his assistants. As the parties proceeded, information with regard to each plot and the tests applied were given by the guides and the result was viewed by the visitors.

Vagaries of Corn Crop

Plowing a plot of corn Mr. Hutton remarked on the success and failure of this crop during the last few years—in 1907 it failed utterly, and in 1908 it produced 17 tons of fodder. "Scientists say that the corn belt is moving north and west at the rate of from 5 to 10 miles a year," said Mr. Hutton. "I have no doubt that we will be able to grow the crop successfully in a few years."

The result of the early and late sowing of fall wheat were pointed out. Wheat sown in August produced the best crop, gradually decreasing as the date of sowing got later, until that sown on September 12th had died out entirely.

"The best order to sow grain in the spring," said Mr. Hutton, "is first wheat, then oats, and then barley. Wheat should be sown at the earliest possible while oats two weeks after the first possible date."

The plots of field peas were shown to the visitors, the most successful variety being the "Earl Briton." Twenty-eight varieties of turnips, carrots and sugar beet are being tested, but up till the present the sugar beets have not produced a sufficient percentage of sugar to make a sugar beet factory profitable. With regard to potato experiments Mr. Hutton said that the seed produced in the province produced better results than that imported from Ontario.

After the round of the farm had been completed the visitors were seated near one of the large barns to listen to addresses delivered by H. A. Craig, superintendent of fairs and institutes; W. F. Puffer, M.P.P., for Lacombe; E. Mitchener, M.P.P., for Red Deer; Hon. Duncan Marshall, Minister of Agriculture; Senator Talbot and W. A. Stevens.

Hearty appreciation of the work being done was expressed by all the speakers who stated that they were of the opinion that the number of stations in the province might be increased and he made practically self-supporting.

WHOLESALE PROSECUTIONS

Chicago, July 30.—Wholesale criminal prosecutions will shortly be instituted as a result of the gigantic car frauds perpetrated so brazenly on the Illinois Central Railroad company during the years 1906-07-08. More than a score of men, some of them prominent former officials of the railroad that was for a time synonymous with "easy marks," are under the continual eye of detectives. If they made the slightest attempt to leave the country a pretext would be found for their immediate arrest.

He who laughs loudest seldom laughs best.

CAMROSE CROPS GOOD

Camrose, July 30.—The crops in this district are rather patchy this year. The wheat crop is well up to the average and many remarkably fine fields are to be seen. The oats, however, are more uneven in quality, fields the equal of anything ever grown alternate with fields in which the straw is short and the crop light.

The barley is not as strong as it might be, but is turning rapidly and will be harvested early. Hay is short and light in most places and is likely to be scarce this winter. The farmers of this district, however, seem to have gone in pretty extensively for cattle and other live stock and as the pasture is good and likely to become better, it will be a very good year for the mixed farmer.

ONLY ONE PASSENGER KILLED

London, July 30.—The report of the Board of Trade dealing with railway accidents in the United Kingdom shows that in 1,164,500 passengers carried, only one passenger was killed while travelling. This is the first case for a period of twenty months, while the number of injured was 390. The record is low compared with the average of previous years.

NEW FUR FIRM FOR EDMONTON

Ladies especially will be interested in the announcement which appears elsewhere in this issue of Alexander Hilbert Fur Company, Limited.

The members of the firm have long been associated with such well known firms as Holt, Renfrew & Co. of Toronto, Quebec and Montreal. This is in itself a warranty of good class, a warranty which is further borne out by an inspection of their stock. Many of all the most popular kinds are to be seen, most skillfully built up into the form of garments with novel and distinctive touches, such as none but the most experienced could give. One of the special features of the new firm will be the making of furs to suit individual taste and in this respect the reputation and experience of Mr. Hilbert, who is in charge of the manufacturing department, fortells success and satisfaction. Mr. Hilbert has had years of practical work in several of the large centres of Eastern Canada and in Paris, Berlin and Vienna.

MISTOOK DOCTOR'S ACTION

New York, July 30.—Rose Meneth, a pretty peasant girl from Austria, lies in a serious condition at Ellis Island, her face and arms torn by window glass through which she leaped in terror after undergoing the usual physical examination.

She had heard many stories of immigrant girls being sold into white slavery on their arrival in this country and so mistook the intentions of the doctors.

THEY FOUGHT TO A FINISH

Medical Men Pit White Blood Corpuscle Against Microbe.

Paris scientists have been enjoying this week a fight to a finish in which there is some good to humanity. The parties to the encounter have been a white blood corpuscle and one of the microbes that are accountable for the deadly African sleeping sickness.

After long study of this disease, Prof. Commandon brought these two enemies together for conflict. Having set them at work he obtained cinematograph pictures of them under powerful magnifiers. Then he invited the members of the Academy of Science to look at the fight. They responded in such numbers that the academy hall was crowded at the exhibition which Prof. Commandon has been urged to repeat here and to carry to other cities.

The pictures are so magnified that every movement of the combatants may be plainly seen. The show opens with one of the fatal bacilli disporting itself in human blood. Then a white corpuscle, known as a phagocyte, is introduced by injection. The phagocyte gave instant battle by attaching itself to the enemy and proceeding to consume it.

In spite of all its efforts, the bacillus could not shake off its assailant, which clung on and kept consuming until the bacillus was killed. Even then consumption went on, the fatal bacillus being slowly devoured and finally lost in the phagocyte.

It's the experience of every man that he wants a lot he doesn't get and gets a lot he doesn't want.

It Is Important to the Merchant that He Should Be a Good Advertiser---

But it is also very important to His Patrons That He Should Be!

THE BUYING PUBLIC has a distinct interest in whether or not a merchant advertises. For it is an economic truth that only the merchant who advertises can afford to offer actual values--to make price-concessions that are really competitive--to do business on the smallest possible per-sale profit.

The buying public has come to know this--to know that the buyer has a direct interest in the question of whether the seller advertises. The buying public has come to know that the buyer pays the penalty of patronizing the non-progressive store, where small volume of sales makes large per-sale profits inevitable.

It has come, therefore, to be a matter of personal interest to a prospective buyer as to whether he or she is dealing with a progressive or with a non-progressive merchant. This personal interest is a purse-interest and therefore comes nearer home than the mere matter of pride in preferring to buy at a LIVE STORE.

Although that sort of pride, somewhat generally held by the people of a city, is what makes the town worth living in--worth doing business in--worth believing in!

Publicity Commissioner Hotchkiss has received a letter from Mrs. Spaford, from Durand, Wisconsin, asking him to try and locate her son, J. W. Spafford, who came to this province some time ago and took up land. It is thought that he located in the Lethbridge district.

Professor Edward Orton, of Columbus, Ohio, arrived in the city yesterday and is a guest at the Alberta. This morning Mr. Fisher, of the Board of Trade and Prof. Orton drove out to visit the Ritchie Mines and the Standard Mine, arriving back in time to lunch at the Edmonton Club.

Eddy McCormick, a newsboy, had a nasty accident this morning. He was running along the sidewalk on Fourth Street selling his papers when a mail, which was protruding, ran into his foot causing a nasty gash. The city ambulance was called and he was removed to the city hospital, where he is being attended by Dr. Fortin. He is doing as well as could be expected, but the wound is a deep one.

A. E. Dunham was found guilty at noon on Saturday by Acting-Magistrate Byers, of assaulting his wife on the 27th July. A fine of $20 and costs or the option of six months at hard labor at Fort Saskatchewan was imposed. Dunham was also bound over to keep the peace for a year on bonds of $500. In delivering judgement, the magistrate gave the defendant a warning, and stated that he was of the opinion that Dunham had lied in the witness box. He said while giving evidence in his own defence.

Jack! How is it that Mrs. Brown can get a quiet hour and drive her baby friends and you cannot get one safe for me. Well, my dear, Dr. Brown says at Harper's Livery and Phone 2324 and order only. Oh, my!

Dr. T. H. Whitlaw, medical health officer, spent Sunday in motoring in the vicinity of Fort Saskatchewan. Dr. Whitlaw states that the crops in that district were splendid, and that the worst he saw were in a fair condition.

Dr. Murphy, Government Railway Engineer, returned to the City Hotel on Saturday night from the west. Dr. and Mrs. Murphy have built a house at the Big Eddy just east of the trestle bridge, and are living there during the summer.

A carload of dairy cattle will be sent to the exhibition by E. Mitchener, M.P.P. for Red Deer from his dairy herd near that place.

John Yek of Leduc, was pronounced insane at the R.N.W.M.P. Barracks on Saturday, by Mandy, J.P., and will be sent to the Brandon asylum.

A party consisting of fourteen Americans from Idaho, Oregon and Oklahoma went out on the Peavine Prairie stage, returning last Saturday and promptly filed on land when they got back.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of Grace Methodist Church will be held in the lecture room of the church on Tuesday, August 2nd, at 7.30 p.m. The programme will be: "The Arm, which is 2,000 years in the making," by Mrs. A. E. Nash and S. E. Bolton. The players who met in the final and as they were in good form some interesting work was played, ending in a win for Mr. Nash with a score of 6-4, 6-3.

A carload of hackneys and Clydes and short horned Durham cattle will be sent to the Edmonton Exhibition from the stock farm at Lashburn, owned by Mr. T. M. Bruce, a Scotch millionaire. The farm, which is 2,000 acres in extent, is managed by T. C. Johns, who exhibited at Winnipeg and Calgary and carried everything before him in the way of prizes.

ALBERTA DOING WELL. Winnipeg, August 1.—The big cricket tournament opened this morning with Saskatchewan playing Manitoba and Alberta against Winnipeg. Manitoba started out well against Saskatchewan, and when time was called for lunch at 1 o'clock Manitoba had 10 for 7 wickets. Cotterill and Price commanded the attack for Saskatchewan. Matthews made 23 for the home team and Laver 30 in splendid form. Price's bowling was very effective.

Alberta disposed of the Winnipeg Cricket Association in a record time, and the best Winnipeg could do was 29. Johnson and Speck did the running for Alberta and Winnipeg could do nothing with them. R. O. White was only man to take double figures, his score being ten.

MURDERER CONFESSES. San Francisco, August 1.—Joseph Wendling, wanted in Louisville, Ky., in connection with the murder of 8 year old Alma Keltner, was taken into custody today. He admitted his identity.

STORM NEARLY CAUSED PANIC

Chimney On Knox Church, Strathcona, Blown Down On Roof

A panic, which might have been accompanied by serious results, were it not for the presence of mind of some, was narrowly averted yesterday afternoon, when during the terrific wind-storm which occurred, the huge chimney on Knox Church, Strathcona blew down, crashing upon the roof, while a Sunday-school rally was being held in the basement of the edifice.

The Sunday-school hall was crowded to capacity with children and their parents, and when the crash came, there was much alarm and consternation, it being thought at first that the church had been struck by lightning. A number of the church attendants, however, immediately ran outside, ascertaining the cause of the crash, and on their return pacified the people within with their explanation. Prof. L. L. Henry, who was conducting the music, was literally showered with plaster which fell from the ceiling as the chimney came in contact with the roof. The roof was considerably damaged.

Throughout Edmonton and Strathcona much damage of a trivial nature was experienced. Many plate glass windows were smashed, and store awnings blown down. The electric sign over the Byron-Mell sign, Howard avenue, fell, as did the sign over the Blue Store on Jasper avenue east.

Part of the fence surrounding the baseball park renewed old acquaintance with mother earth, while many trees throughout the city collapsed.

There were also many amusing incidents during the progress of the storm, and everywhere unfortunate gentlemen could be seen making frantic reaches for their hats as a little gust of wind would carry their spectacles just a little further beyond them. There was sufficient sand blown about, that if collected, would keep a glass factory in operation until the end of time.

OLD MAN DISAPPEARED. Cornwall Man Aged Eighty Wandered Away. Cornwall, Ont., August 1.—A man named "An Bailey, eighty years of age, disappeared yesterday, and no trace of him can be found. Sunday was the ninth anniversary of his wife's death, and Bailey had been worrying over it for some days. He has two daughters and one son residing here.

JOHN G. CARLISLE DEAD. New York, N.Y., Aug. 1.—John G. Carlisle, former secretary of the United States, died in his apartments last night of heart failure, accompanied by oedema of the lungs.

BALD HEAD FOOLED OSTRICH. The trained ostrich disconcerted its exhibitor at a music hall recently by continually endeavouring to break away from all restraint and climb over the footlights into the orchestra. The widely advertised act came to a sudden end, and the professor emerged from behind the curtain and apologized for the actions of his pet in loud these words:

"Ladies and gentlemen—His high lordship is very sorry to disappoint you this evening. We are compelled to cease our business because a new management engages a new orchestra leader. The one at present hired here has no fair on top of his head."

'I'M CRIPPEN', SAID SUSPECT

She gave a piercing shriek, staggered at the hands on which she fell and lay moaning, shielding her face from her captors with her arm. The police had gone into the arrest with everything ready for such a contingency. There was at the door a steward with a glass of brandy. As she took it she threw something out of the port hole and although the officers jumped they did not even see what it was. She held her hand to her head all the time moaning. When the search began she collapsed and the doctor had to be called. She had recovered by night however, and ate dinner. The arrest of Crippen himself was made at nine a.m. sharp. Dow was not satisfied with the search of Crippen and himself made another.

Crippen Was Nervous. During the voyage the man was nervous and had something on his mind, but the girl was gay and happy, except for spells of depression. The couple would have been noticed if the girl had not been dressed as a boy. She is small, well built, and boy's dress did not conceal the outlines of a woman. All the officers and many of the passengers were sure she was a woman and with the papers of the Crippen case on board, third officer Mewat connected the two and spoke of it to the captain. He gathered all the papers and the three officers went carefully into the case and decided that they were the two wanted.

Kendall was asked what he would do with the reward. "The what?" he asked. "The reward?"

"I did not know there was one." He refused to be interviewed as he was to be a witness and all the officers had been notified to keep their mouths shut.

Crippen Feared Discovery. The great fear shown by Dr. Crippen as they approached Father Point was that his companion would get a glimpse of the ship. He was covered. When he saw the pilots, he asked why there were so many. He evidently had no suspicion that anyone suspected him till he stood face to face with the captain in the cabin of the ship's captain.

Besides the womanly appearance of the girl, her actions and mannerism made many suspicious. The dining-room steward was sure she was a girl from the way she handled her food. Mrs. Nephew, a passenger, saw her slip on deck and heard her scream. She knew she was a woman and spoke to several others about it. Arthur Hosmer, Montreal, spoke to her several times and heard her laugh. He was sure she was a girl but did not mention it.

The reason Dow hesitated in the identification was that Crippen had shaved his whiskers off as well as his mustache. He shaved his beard the morning of the arrest and looked a different man. When the ship got to Quebec there were thousands waiting to see the couple.

Crippen was put into a cab and driven rapidly away. The crowd crushed to see the girl, but Captain Kendall took the party along to another gang plank and got away before the crowd knew, and the girl was chased by the newspaper men after the cab. But the fugitive cab escaped and drove by a round-about way to the cells awaiting them.

London, August 1.—The course taken in reference to Crippen's return to England will be decided by the Canadian authorities and upon this Scotland Yard's immediate action rests. Miss Leneve's relatives stand loyally by her innocence and have called her to give the police her "most assistance. He father has engaged eminent counsel to defend her. Quebec, Que., August 1.—Crippen and the Leneve girl were arraigned this morning in Justice Pettenger's court. He is charged with the murder of his wife, and the girl with being an accessory. They protest their innocence. Every effort is being made to get the girl to turn King's evidence.

TEMPERANCE MEETING. The meeting at the Orpheum Theatre at 4 o'clock on Sunday afternoon under the auspices of the local branch of the Alberta Temperance and Moral Reform League had a fair attendance. These series of pleasant Sunday afternoon services keep up their popularity. On this occasion the address was given by the Reverend W. H. Smith, of the Namayo Gospel Mission. The chair was taken by Mr. G. K. Jones.

"The Children and the Drink," was the title of solo and quartette. The former was well rendered by Sister Ronald Brown, the latter by Messrs. R. and H. B. Brown, G. Dyson and S. Brown.

Collection was taken on behalf of the children's camp of the United Aid. Next Sunday the committee hope to be able to place a temperance film on the screen in addition to a musical programme.

HYMN BRINGS TEARS

the band began to play.

At this service King was not present, not being allowed to leave his cell, but his place of confinement was next to the prison yard and he strained his ears to hear what was going on. King it is said is held to the core but there must be some soft spot in his character, some kindness hidden beneath the hard exterior, for while the band was softly playing the old well-remembered hymn, "Rock of Ages, Clief, for Me," King sank down on his cot, his head sunk in his arms, sobbing as though his heart would break, and remained there long after the strains had died away. Perhaps it touched some hidden chord, bringing back to him memories of days long past when he, too, was innocent of any crime and beginning his life with the joy and fervor of youth. Perhaps even his mother softly sang him to sleep with it, when he was a boy.

When the service was over, with cheery "Good-byes" the members of the Salvation Army went back to the outer world, and the convicts fled back to their cells, back to the monotony of so many more months or years, as the case may be, of captivity, straining their ears to catch the last sounds of the band as it marched away in the distance.

And the condemned man still lay on his cot, the full realization of what was in store before him, never did life seem so well worth having as when man is faced with the certainty of loosing it.

Sheriff Robertson received the warrant for the execution of King on Saturday night, together with a letter saying that there would be no interference on the part of the authorities at Ottawa and commanding that the execution be proceeded with.

There is now nothing to hinder the carrying out of the sentence which will take place at 7.30 a.m. tomorrow. To See Minister. Fort Saskatchewan, Aug. 1.—2 o'clock p.m.—At 3 o'clock this afternoon the minister of the German Lutheran Church at Bruderheim will go to King and stay with him the whole night. King is in gloomy spirits and his courage seems likely to fail him. He is not fasting as he is waiting the first date of his execution, neither is he taking anything out of the ordinary to eat or drink.
